

So after Lebanon it was a quick trip back to the UK before we went off to sunny and warm Singapore. It was just great to have some January sunshine and it was quite a shock to the system to leave Singapore at 30°C and then 14 hours later step off the aeroplane in the UK where it was 2°C!

As we have lots of school groups from Singapore we try to return annually and visit the schools to hear feedback from previous summers and look forward to the next summer! It's always good to see past students as well and hear how they're getting on. If you are a teacher and are interested in bringing a school group then email us at groups@reachcambridge.com.

Downtown Singapore at night

It's really great to see the new buildings and developments that they have in Singapore – there seems to be something new and impressive each time we return! This year it was great to see the completed Science & Art museum and the brilliant musical fountain display just outside it.

Thank you to everyone for their hospitality. It was an especially exciting time to be in Singapore as it was just after the Chinese New Year celebrations so there was still a lot of things going on in Chinatown and in the central areas of Singapore to celebrate. We especially enjoyed reading our
